BATTERY COMMERCIAL WELCOMES STUART SCHEINHOLTZ TO THE FIRM
SAN FRANCISCO, CA

SAN FRANCISCO (June 25, 2012) — Battery Commercial Corporation, specializing in the brokerage of single-tenant commercial real estate nationwide, is pleased to announce the addition of the newest member of our team: Stuart Scheinholtz.

Stuart's career has included practicing law, running an OREO group at Bank of America, development and brokerage. He has worked for a major San Francisco law firm as well as served as in-house counsel for a real estate developer. While in the OREO group at Bank of America, he closed nearly 60 deals, including several with significant issues, totaling $135 million. He also managed a team responsible for many more transactions and later ran a group established to redevelop Bank assets. With a partner, Stuart developed two successful residential projects in San Francisco with sale proceeds of $50 MM. He later acted as a development manager at one of the nation's largest developers of commercial condominiums, where he was responsible for projects valued at $200 MM. Stuart has an active practice in NNN deals where he uses his extensive legal, transactional and market experience to benefit clients. He is a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania (B.A.) and Georgetown University Law Center (J.D.).

The Principals of Battery Commercial have been together for over 22 years and have transacted over $2.5 Billion of single-tenant real estate. With the addition of Stuart Scheinholtz, the agents of Battery Commercial have collective experience in the sale of over $3.25 Billion of properties in almost all 50 states. Battery Commercial provides cutting edge, specialized, market making services to its diverse clientele. Battery Commercial is the leading independent NNN leased investment brokerage firm in San Francisco focused exclusively on advising clients in the disposition and acquisition of commercial property nationwide.
